INDEX NIFTY OUTLOOK:

The Sensex reclaimed Mount 36K on Tuesday and the Nifty climbed the 10,900 mark for the first time since February. Bulls seem to have taken control over D-Street as the index has managed to surmount the wall of worries. Experts feel it is now poised to hit fresh record highs, which might come in July itself. The index witnessed a breakout above 10,930 which was the intraday high recorded on the day of Karnataka election result. The next crucial resistance is placed at 11,171, record high formed in January, but before that it could face some pressure around 10,950 levels, they stated.
